Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application-by-application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

There is no oath or declaration in the IFW as presented.

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the steps, method as recited in claims 1-5 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement-drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1,2,6 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Osada.

The following analysis is made:

Claim 1:	Osada
A method for recovering an absolute time	see abstract, and background of
in pre-groove (ATIP) clock and an	the invention ATIP signal from a wobble signal through a reference clock, the ATIP clock being synchronized with the ATIP signal and the reference clock comprising a plurality of reference periods, each of the reference periods having a fixed interval,
The method comprising:

counting a number of reference periods of the reference clock occurring within a period of the wobble signal and generating a corresponding counting result;

see the description of element 50 generating an average number according to a long-term average of the counting results;

see the description of element 52

generating a wobble clock according to the average number and the reference clock,

see the description of element 54

generating the ATIP signal according to the average number and the counting result;
and

generating the ATIP clock according to the ATIP signal and the wobble clock.

the output signal WTCLK

Claim 2:

The method of claim 1 wherein the wobble clock is generated by dividing the reference clock by the average number.

see the description of element 54

Claim 6:

A circuit for generating a wobble clock through see above analysis of the Osada

Art Unit: 2653

a reference clock and a reference as pertains to the preamble wobble signal, the reference clock comprising a plurality of reference periods, each of the reference periods having a fixed interval,
the circuit comprising:

a counter for counting the wobble signal element 50
according to the reference clock',

a digital average processor connected to element 52 the counter for averaging an output of the counter to generate an average number
and

a divider for dividing the reference clock element 54 by the average number so as to generate the wobble clock.

Claim 10:

The circuit of claim 6 further comprising see the sync. ckt elements a synchronization circuit for 61-63.
generating an ATIP clock synchronized with the ATIP signal through triggers of the wobble clock.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3-5 and 7-9 and 11-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Usui et al is illustrative of another prior art wobble averaging system.

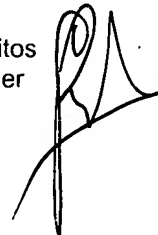

Applicant's attention is drawn to MPEP ¶ 601 with respect to the missing oath.
